

Internet Banking System

Table Of Contents

- 1. Internet Banking System
 - 1. System Overview

Abstract

This system allows the bank to provide online banking services to it's customers.
For the most part, this system will use the existing Mainframe DB that the bank already uses to store and process all the banking records.

System Overview

Our online banking system should allow our users to:

- View their account information online
- Perform banking actions such as transferring funds and trading
- Receive email notifications for different key information

